Reflections

I go to VIC so pity me. There's not a boy in the vicinity.
And every night at nine they bar the doors. I don't know what the h - - I ever came here for.
And when I'm on that train and homeward bound,
I'm going to tear that
d - - - town upside down.
I'm going to drink, smoke,
neck, p - - - what the heck.
I'm a wreck
VI the old maids
prep!

Friendship

And softly, through a vinous mist, my college friendships glimmer.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

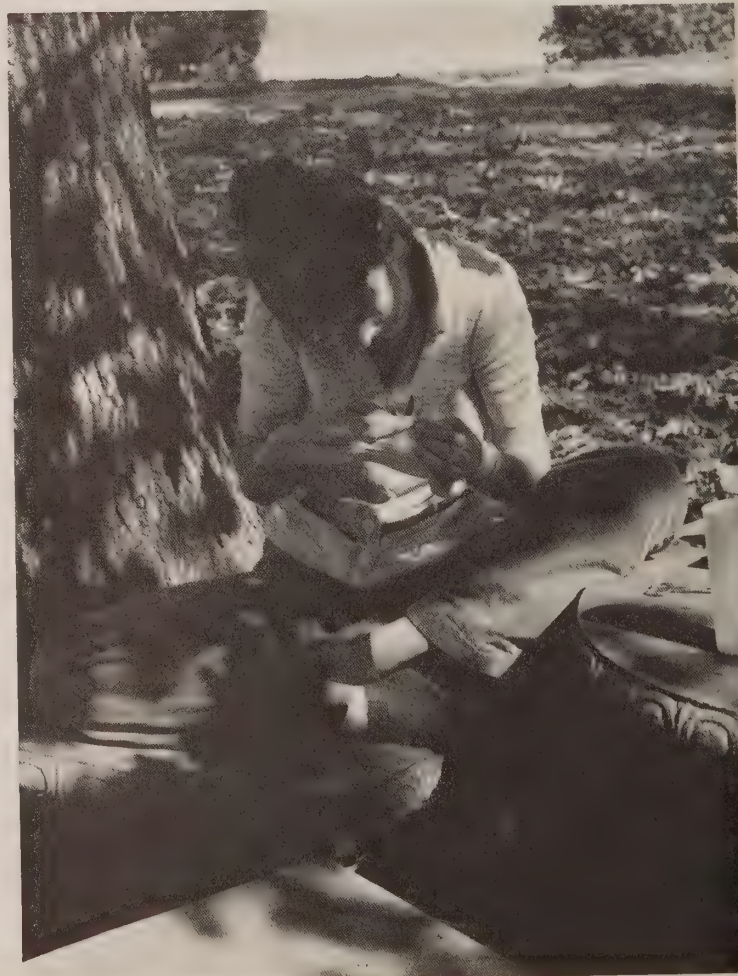

Solitude

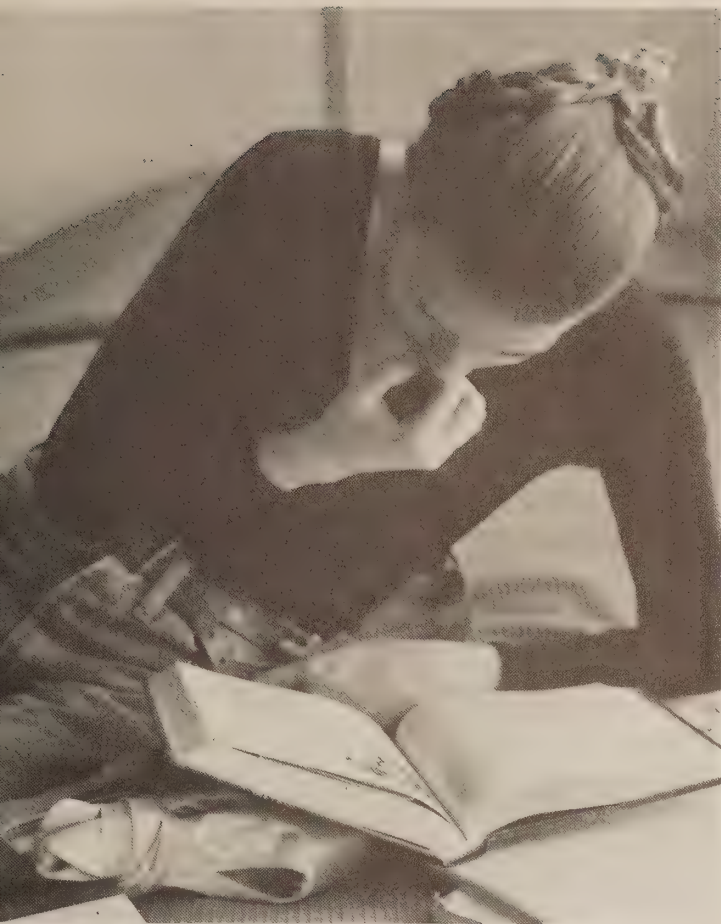

Everyone must face their share of loneliness
 In my own time, nobody knew
 The pain I was going through
 And waiting was all my heart could do.

Richard Carpenter and John Bettis

Individualism

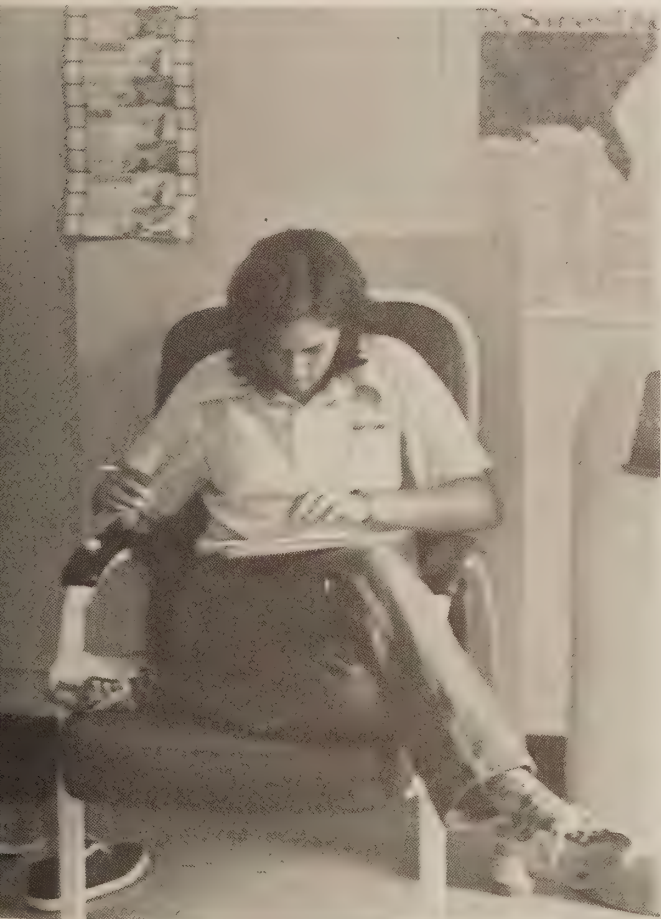

Be true to yourself
 Though the heavens fall.
 When your conscience beckons,
 Answer its call.
 Your possessions can't prove
 That you're big or small,
 In a world full of midgets,
 You've got to stand tall,
 For there's nobody else like you!
 Cynthia Judy Prime

Learning

Worlds can swerve while I stammer
The stars come different at night and nearer.
I can't learn even how to enter
What awaits me every year.
And it is late, I know it.

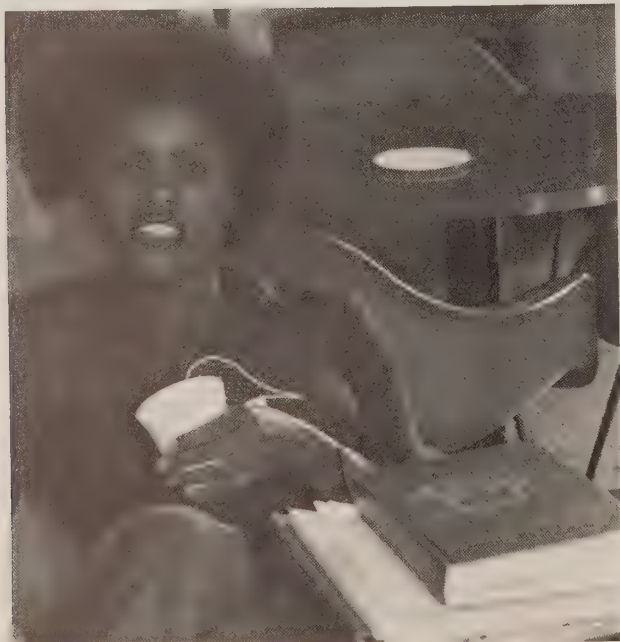

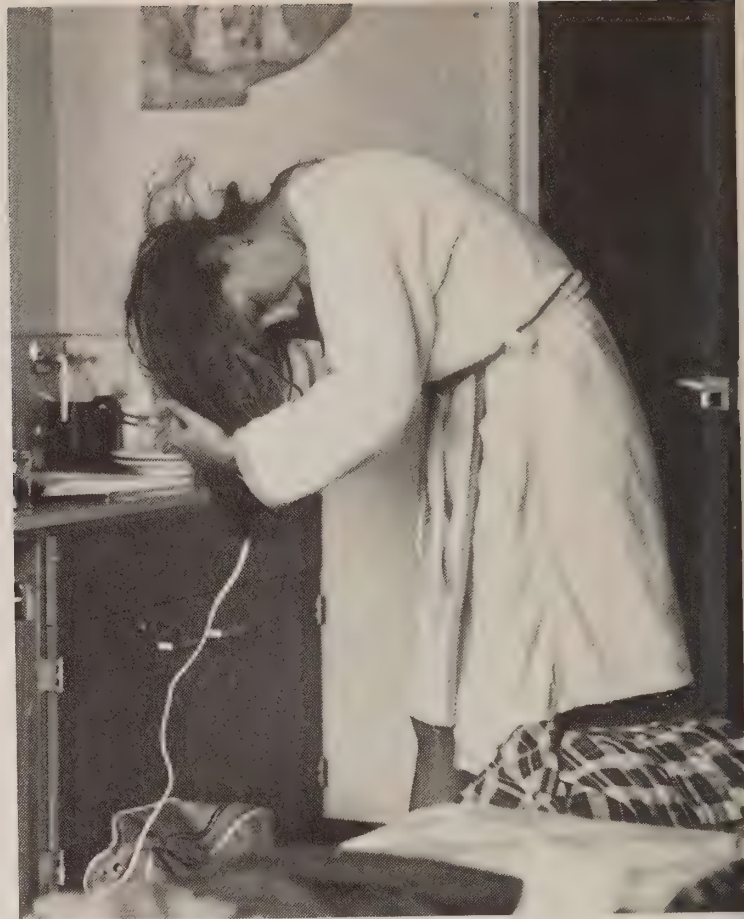

William Stafford

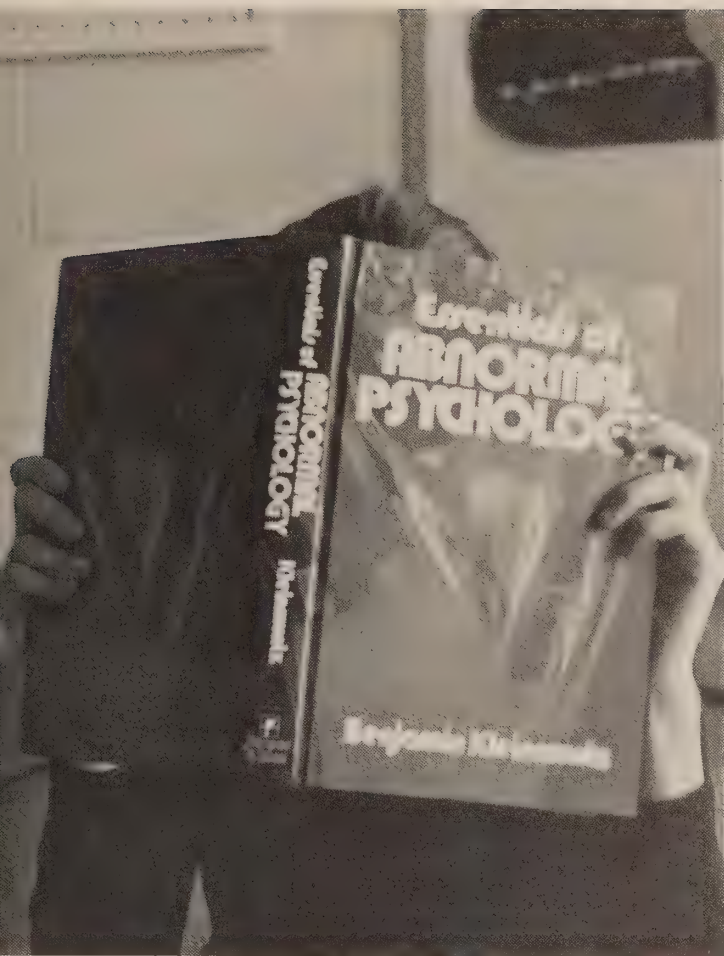

Rounding Out

No time to pause to see the lights;
No time to pause to see the sights.
Rush ahead and worm your way through
To escape tramping behind you
So rush! rush! rush! rush! on!
Down the street
There's no time to notice
Whom you meet.

D. C. Pratt

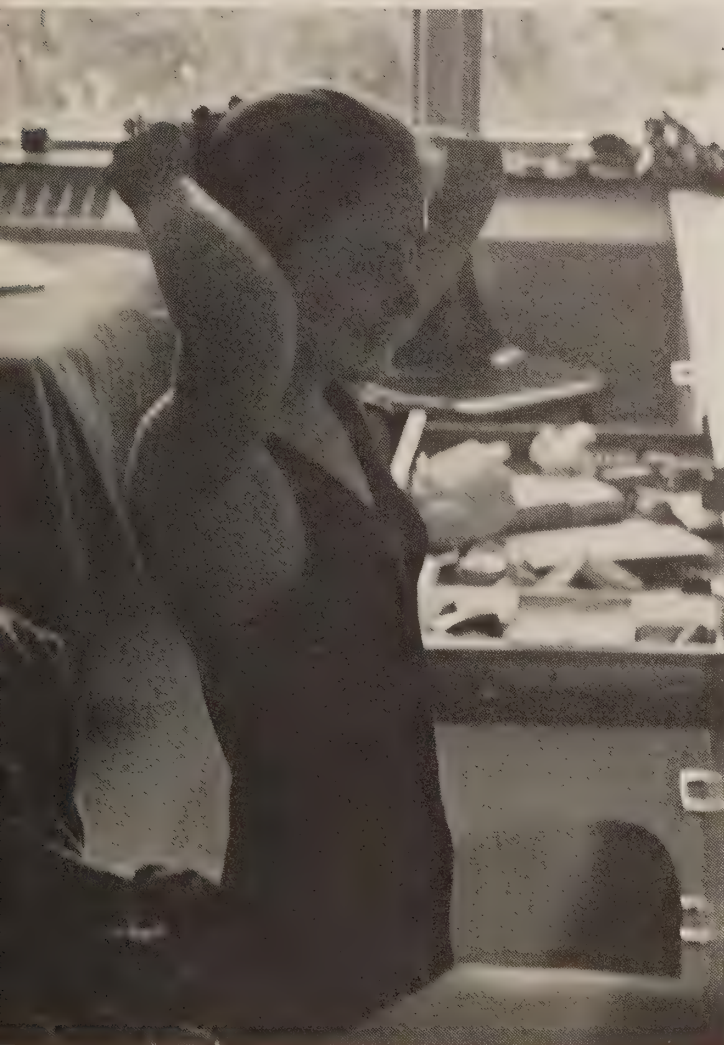

Reflections

How sweet the silent backward tracings!

The wanderings as in dreams —
The meditation of old times resumed —

Their loves, joys, persons, voyages.

Walt Whitman

Sports

The Athlete

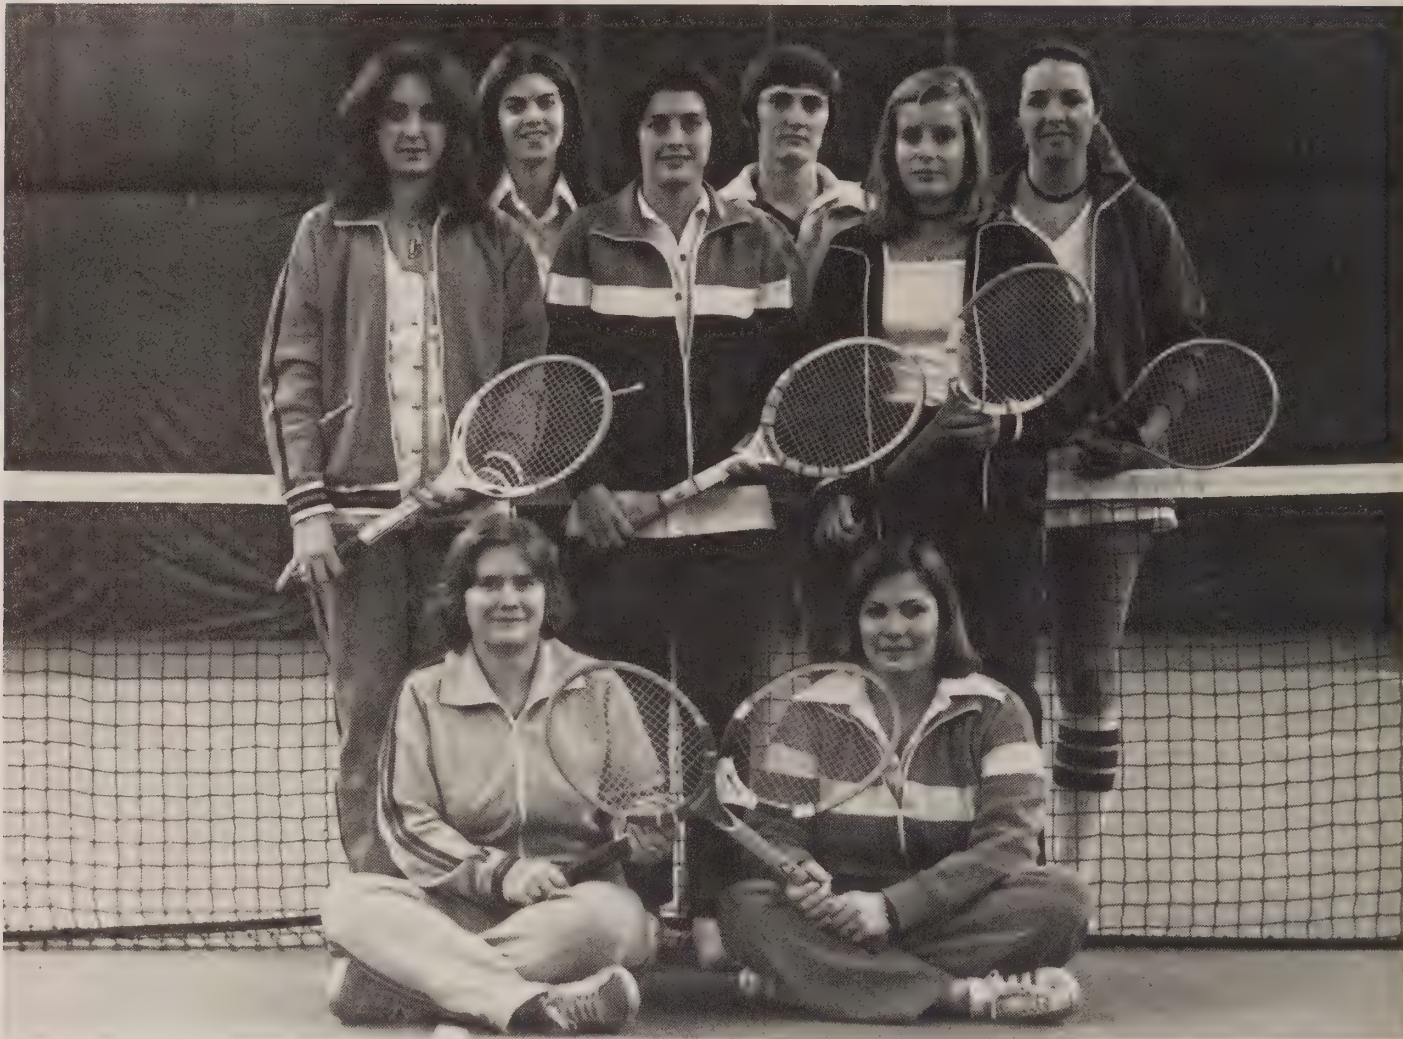

A fleeting figure
Strained to the very limit of endurance, yet graceful as a swan.

Involved in action so intensely that,
the figure becomes the action as naturally as a river flows.

An artist,
whose expressions lie in motion, agility,
tact, endurance, strength and ability.
Truly nature's own child.

Hold on to what is good even if it is
a handful of earth.
Hold on to what you believe
even if it is
a tree which stands by itself.
Hold on to what you must do
even if it is

Hold on to life even when it is easier letting go.
Hold on to my hand even when I have gone away from you.
